

Term of Release of Images and Data Waiver

I, _____ and all the members of my crew, named and listed individually below, their friends, assistants, family members and others involved directly and/or indirectly to this crew and it's members, unconditionally accept having their photographs, videos, and interviews publicized by means of radio, newspaper, television and other media coverage for informative, promotional, advertising and any other type of marketing purposes pertinent to the Brazil 135 Ultramarathon Brazil 217 Relay (4), (3), (2) and SOLO race, or other events organized by the same enterprise "BRAZIL 135 Ltd.", in any other time or format without resulting in charges against the organizer, sponsors, supporters, promoters or their own means.

The members of the teams/crews are responsible to instruct and pass on the information about this provision to their families, friends, crew members, exempting the organizer of any cost for this purpose or future responsibility for the violation of this provision. I declare that there is no penalty of mine before the national and international sports organs, being able to participate in this event.

After having read this term of release for use of images and having understood it's conditions, I understand that I am giving up my substantial rights by signing my name, which I do of my own free will and choice, without any coercion, in the presence of two instrumental witnesses.
